Resume

The BALI 4.2 Fima is a catamaran that offers a larger usable deck area than other catamarans in its category, with 79.2 square meters, approximately 10% more.

This catamaran embodies the latest developments and innovations in the BALI range. It stands out for its slender bow hull design and elegant lines. The interior space is completely open, flooded with natural light, and provides panoramic views of the sea.

The BALI 4.2 benefits from the unique innovations of the Catana Group: a rigid forward cockpit with a lounge area and sunbathing space, a platform connecting the two aft skirts with a large bench and storage lockers, a large pivoting BALI door and sliding side windows, a helm station with a panoramic relaxation area on the roof accessible from both sides, a simple and practical davit system, and a boom height specially designed to be accessible to all. Not to mention the interior door that provides access to the forward cockpit.

The BALI 4.2 is an ideal choice for a cruise in Corsica. With its innovative design, generous space, and clever layout, it offers optimal comfort to enjoy the exceptional landscapes of Corsica. Whether you want to relax on the sunbathing areas, enjoy an outdoor meal in the forward cockpit, or admire the panoramic view from the helm station, the BALI 4.2 will allow you to experience a unique sailing adventure in Corsica.

Thanks to its advanced technical features and maneuverability, the BALI 4.2 also offers good performance at sea, allowing you to easily explore the Corsican coast and discover the numerous coves, beaches, and picturesque villages on the island.

By choosing the BALI 4.2 for your cruise in Corsica, you will have a modern, comfortable, and practical catamaran designed to meet all your sailing and relaxation needs. Enjoy every moment on board this exceptional catamaran and create unforgettable memories during your trip to Corsica.
